ONLINE TEE TIME RESERVATIONS AVAILABLE AT WWW.HERNDONGOLF.COM

Herndon, VA (May 21, 2007) – Patrons of the Herndon Centennial Golf Course, one of the Washington, DC metropolitan area's premier public golf courses, may now reserve tee times directly online at www.herndongolf.com.

Visitors to www.herndongolf.com need only click on the "reserve a tee time" link; they will transport to www.golfgopher.com, the portal that is hosting the Herndon Centennial's online reservations capability. First-time users will need to register by clicking on the "membership" and "become a member" links.

"The 'exceptional service' for which Herndon Centennial Golf Course is renowned extends now to the reservations process as well," said Gene Fleming, director of Golf for the Town of Herndon. "Our new online reservations capability makes it easier and more convenient for patrons to book tee times with us."

Consistently recognized as one of Golf Digest's "Places to Play," Herndon Centennial features 18 holes, a driving range, practice greens and golf instruction by PGA professionals. All tee times at Herndon Centennial are for 18 holes only; weekday and weekend tee times may be reserved one week in advance for two, three or four players, with a maximum of two foursomes per person for 18 holes only. Reservations may also be made by calling 703/471-5769.

The Town of Herndon was incorporated by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia on January 14, 1879. Located in western Fairfax County, Herndon is the 3rd largest town in the Commonwealth and is home to more than 23,000 citizens. Businesses located within the Town of Herndon, which range from high tech enterprises to entrepreneurially-owned establishments, employ approximately 23,500 people. In 2006, Herndon was named one of the “best affordable suburbs” in the nation by Business Week Magazine.
